The Director's decision on an administrative deviation is final and can not be appealed. In the event the Director denies the request, the applicant's only recourse is to apply for a public hearing. No fees paid for the administrative deviation will be refunded or applied towards the public hearing.

If it is determined that inaccurate or misleading information was provided to the county or the decision does not comply with the Land Development Code when rendered, then, at any time, the Director may issue a modified decision that complies with the Code or revoke the decision. If the approval is revoked, the applicant may acquire the necessary approvals by filing an application for public hearing in accordance with Chapter 34.
