ORANGE COUNTY – The Florida Association of Counties (FAC) presented Lee County Commissioner Larry Kiker with the Presidential Advocacy Award during the 2014 FAC Annual Conference & Exposition in Orange County.

Commissioner Kiker was an invaluable asset to FAC this year as it launched its new Federal advocacy program. Commissioner Kiker's interest and intimate knowledge of flood insurance issues helped the Association convey to Congress why flood insurance reform was desperately needed. As a result of this advocacy, Florida's flood insurance story was told and Congress ultimately passed legislation that will help many Floridians who were financially impacted by the old law. The Homeowner Flood Insurance Affordability Act was passed and signed into law by the President on March 21, 2014.

"It is public servants like Commissioner Kiker that ensure our local communities have the authority to respond to the demands of their citizens," said FAC Executive Director Chris Holley, "Commissioner Kiker's willingness to advocate for counties on every level was essential to passing this important legislation."

The Presidential Advocacy Award is given annually to those county commissioners from around the state that who have shown exceptional leadership in partnering with FAC to advance the counties' legislative agenda.

FAC 2014 Presidential Advocacy Award winners were: Karen Seel, Pinellas County; Heather Carruthers, Monroe County; Bill Truex, Charlotte County; Larry Kiker, Lee County; Chip LaMarca, Broward County; Doug Smith, Martin County; Lynda Bell, Miami-Dade County; Grover Robinson, Escambia County; Stan McClain, Marion County; Sarah Heard, Martin County; Kathy Bryant, Marion County; Karson Turner, Hendry County; Kathryn Starkey, Pasco County; Ed Fielding, Martin County; Frannie Hutchison, St. Lucie County.

For 85 years, the Florida Association of Counties has represented the diverse interests of Florida's counties, emphasizing the importance of protecting home rule – the concept that government closest to the people governs best. The Florida Association of Counties helps counties effectively serve and represent Floridians by strengthening and preserving county home rule through advocacy, education and collaboration.
