Campground at Caloosahatchee Regional Park to close temporarily for parking lot maintenance

Fort Myers, FL, April 11, 2025 – The campground and lodge at Caloosahatchee Regional Park, 19130 North River Road, Alva, will be closed temporarily Monday, April 21, and Tuesday, April 22, for parking lot pavement repairs and restriping.

During this time, the main parking lot at 18500 North River Road, Alva, will remain open, providing access to picnic pavilions and the southside walking trails, including the overlook and fishing pier. Additionally, the northside parking lot at 18251 North River Road, Alva, will also remain open, allowing access to the equestrian and mountain bike trails.

Lee County Parks & Recreation has placed signage throughout the park to inform visitors of the temporary closure.

The campground, lodge, and parking lot are scheduled to reopen at dawn on Wednesday, April 23. For camping or lodge reservations, call 239-694-0398 or visit www.leeparks.org/register.
