Lee County Parks & Recreation community pools temporarily closed for 2025 Southern Zone Open Water Championships

Fort Myers, FL, April 9, 2025 – All Lee County Parks & Recreation community pools will be closed temporarily Saturday, April 26, so that county lifeguards can assist with the 2025 Southern Zone Open Water Championships taking place at Lynn Hall Memorial Park, 950 Estero Blvd., Fort Myers Beach.

The locations that will be temporarily closed are:

- San Carlos Community Pool, 8208 Sanibel Blvd., Fort Myers
- Lehigh Acres Community Pool, 1400 W. Fifth St., Lehigh Acres
- Pine Island Community Pool, 5675 Sesame Drive, Pine Island
- North Fort Myers Community Pool, 5170 Orange Grove Blvd., North Fort Myers

Signs have been posted at the sites and online to inform pool patrons of the one-day closing.

Lee County and Gulf Coast Swim Team are hosting this event, which attracts competitive swimmers throughout Florida. Admission to the event is free; patrons must pay to park.

Pools will reopen Tuesday, April 29, with normal operating hours. County pools are closed Sundays and Mondays, except during summer.
