

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - PHOTO ATTACHED

Miracle host Breast Cancer Awareness Night with fireworks!
Team will wear special pink jerseys to be auctioned off during the game

FORT MYERS, Fla. (June 1, 2015) - On Saturday, June 6, the Fort Myers Miracle will host a very special evening at the ballpark with the 6th annual Breast Cancer Awareness Night presented by the Regional Cancer Center, 96.9 MORE-FM and WINK TV.

The Miracle will play the Bradenton Marauders at 6:05 p.m. at Hammond Stadium and fireworks will light up the Southwest Florida sky after the game. Breast cancer survivors will receive a free ticket to the game.

In honor of breast cancer survivors, the Miracle will wear pink jerseys that will be available for auction during the game. The auction will take place on the concourse and it will conclude in the middle of the sixth inning. Fans with the winning bids will be invited onto the field after the game to receive the jersey from the respective player.

The silent auction will also include other signed memorabilia items from sports icons Peyton Manning, Penny Hardaway, Jr., Torii Hunter, Roger Clemens, Rollie Fingers, John Lester and many more. The silent auction will include non-sports related items to bid on such as the "Beer Basket" which includes a big grill filled with merchandise from small breweries.

A portion of the net proceeds from the jersey auction, silent auction and raffles will benefit the Lee Memorial Health Systems Regional Cancer Center to assist with mammogram services life-saving treatment for uninsured and underinsured patients.

The Regional Cancer Center has partnered with Bireley Family Funds to present Breast Cancer Awareness Night at Hammond Stadium. The evening is also sponsored by Florida Radiology Consultants, Fort Myer Beach Lions Club and Eye Centers of Florida.

Fans are encouraged to "Think Pink" and show support by wearing pink to the game. The bases will all be pink and the Miracle will even feature a pink grapefruit beer!

Prior to the game, a survivor walk will begin at 5:15 p.m. around the warning track at Hammond Stadium. Fans who are survivors, and their families, are invited to take part. Those participating in the survivor walk are encouraged to email Nicki McTeague at nicole.McTeague@LeeMemorial.org.

Five taps will be commandeered in the first-ever tap takeover at Hammond Stadium by Fort Myers Brewery. The third base bar will feature five different beers from Fort Myers Brewery: Gateway Gold, High 5 IPA, Tamiami Tan, Caloosahatchee Kolsch and a specially brewed batch of the Chocolate Peanut Butter Porter.

Fans can enjoy a SINK or SWIM Saturday. For just $12, fans get a pink wristband for All You Can Drink domestic draft beers through the sixth inning. The tap takeover and Fort Myers Brewery beers are not included in the SINK or SWIM promotion.

Tickets are available at the Miracle offices on the fourth floor of Hammond Stadium from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Fans can purchase tickets online at www.miraclebaseball.com or call \(239\) 768-4210768-4210).