The Board of County Commissioners

RESOLUTION

Whereas: The safe use of hazardous material is essential to business, industry and local governments to maintain economic stability, and to protect the citizens of the Ninth Planning District of Florida; and

Whereas: It is essential to plan and prepare for the accidental release of hazardous materials and to protect the well being of all citizens and visitors in the District; and

Whereas: Response teams, such as fire, police, and emergency medical services must know the types of hazardous materials and chemicals that are being used and stored in the event of an incident to respond safely; and

Whereas: All citizens have a Right-to-Know the types of hazardous materials and chemicals in their communities, and a Right-to-Know the proper procedures to take in case of an accident or emergency.; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE Board of County Commissioners of Lee County, Florida recognizes the importance of community awareness of the "Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act" enacted by the United States of America, and hereby declares the week of February 23-March 1, 2003, as Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Awareness Week in Lee County.

Duly Executed this 18th day of February 2003.
