RESOLUTION

Whereas, the Caloosahatchee River is of great economic, recreational, ecological and historic significance to the people of Lee County; and

Whereas, the Lee County Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) acting of behalf of the people of Lee County, Florida have acknowledged the great importance of the Caloosahatchee River; and

Whereas, the Caloosahatchee River has been subject to extensive impacts from changes to its watershed and other management activities that have diminished its ecological health during most of the past 40 years; and

Whereas; the Lee County BOCC with assistance of an able and professional staff have demonstrated a timely response to issues relating to the health and integrity of the Caloosahatchee River; and

Whereas, through deliberations with various agencies and organizations, the BOCC has developed policies for protecting and sustaining the Caloosahatchee River and has applied these policies consistently;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Southwest Florida Watershed Council and the Caloosahatchee River Citizens Association recognizes the Lee County BOCC for their unwavering support and commitment to protecting the Caloosahatchee River.

This Resolution was unanimously adopted by the Southwest Florida Watershed Council and the Caloosahatchee River Citizens Association on _____ 2005.

, Chairman, Southwest Florida Watershed Council
