The Board of County Commissioners

RESOLUTION

Whereas: The nation's 3,066 counties provide a variety of essential public services to communities serving 300 million Americans; and

Whereas: Counties take seriously their responsibility to protect and enhance the health, welfare and safety of their citizens in sensible and cost-effective ways; and

Whereas: Many county government initiatives involve the protection of valuable and vulnerable environmental resources in communities; and

Whereas: The National Association of Counties is the only national organization that represents county governments in the United States, provides essential services to the nation's counties, advances issues with a unified voice before the federal government, improves the public's understanding of county government, assists counties in finding and sharing innovative solutions through education and research, and provides value-added services to save counties and taxpayers money; and

Whereas: The National Association of Counties first celebrated National County Government Week in 1991 to raise public awareness and understanding about the roles and responsibilities of the nation's counties to meet the needs of the community; and

Whereas: In recognition of the leadership, innovation and valuable service provided by the nation's counties,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of County Commissioners of Lee County, Florida that we do hereby proclaim April 22-28, 2007 as National County Government Week in Lee County.

Duly executed this 17th day of April, 2007.
