Fort Myers, FL, Nov. 17, 2021– Lee County Parks & Recreation welcomes all senior athletes to participate in the 2022 Lee County Senior Games – “Fitness Matters.” Registration is open now for the games, which feature social, recreational and competitive activities.

The games will be held Jan. 28 through March 19, 2022, with action in nine sports in various locations throughout the county.

The Florida Games Series Qualifier Events include:

- Table Tennis
- Bag Toss
- Archery
- Bowling
- Pickleball
- Billiards
- Swimming
- Tennis
- 5K Run

Register at leeparks.org. Registration is $15 per event with an online registration, and $20 per event with mail-in registration. Participants must be 50 years or older by Dec. 31, 2022, and qualifying event top finishers will be eligible to compete at the state level in the 2022 Florida Senior Games. Participants will receive one t-shirt that will be distributed at event site. Medals will be presented to the first-, second- and third-place finishers of each event.
