Thank you for your continued interest in the Lee County Material Recycling Facility (MRF) Project. We are committed to transparency and community involvement and will provide updates via email as our project progresses. Additionally, the landing page for the MRF will remain active throughout the project; as a reminder, it can be accessed at <https://www.leegov.com/solidwaste/mrf>.

Please remember that any concerned resident can send their contact information to swadmin@leegov.com to receive updates specific to the MRF project, or they can opt-in to all Lee County communication at <https://www.leegov.com/resources/newsletters>.

Residents can explore these project updates on the MRF landing page:

- We added a Working Site Plan to the landing page. This Working Site Plan shows the current building and site layout, building dimensions and landscape berm locations.
- We added the Conceptual Floor Plan to the landing page. The Conceptual Floor Plan shows the general configuration of the MRF.
- We've updated our Conceptual Schedule and posted it under the "Additional Resources" section of the landing page.
- We linked the MRF landing page to a recording of the April 9, 2024, Public Meeting Presentation, hosted by Pelican Preserve.
- We streamlined the FAQ – instead of 55 FAQ questions, we've reduced the number to 8. The full set of 55 FAQ questions is still available on the website in a single PDF file under "Additional Resources."
- We added a copy of Lee County's Ordinance 22-10 (Noise Ordinance) to the "Additional Resources" section.
